BARRE & STRETCH

This class consists of 30 minutes Barre followed by 15-20 minutes stretch.

Barre combines ballet inspired work with other styles of training such as Pilates, dance, yoga and strength training. This class uses the ballet barre as support – focusing on repetition of exercises in small ranges of movement. Barre helps improve balance, stability, and strength, working on smaller muscle groups and core strength.

Stretching decreases your risk of injury, helps joints move through the full range of motion, increases muscle blood flow, enables your muscles to work more effectively and improves your performance in physical activities.

BODY CONDITIONING

Body conditioning refers to a wide range of exercises that train the whole body. Body conditioning combines cardio & resistance work to an energetic beat to work the whole body. A wide variety of equipment will be used with new formats taught every week. Suitable for all levels as modifications will be given..
